Use online videos for information to teach skills and activities.

*Create small groups allows you to differentiate instruction to allow all your students to be successful.

*Each group can use a different video.

The screenshot shows the YouTube for Schools homepage. At the top is the YouTube logo and navigation links like 'Browse' and 'Upload'. A search bar is also present. The main heading reads 'Educate, engage, and inspire your students with video!'. Below this, there's a sign-up section for YouTube for Schools, which includes a 'Sign up today' button and a link to sign up for free if you don't have a Google account. To the right, there's a video player showing a 'YouTube for Schools: Join the Global Class' video. Below the sign-up section, there's a 'Features' section with four items: 'Comprehensive' (access to thousands of educational videos), 'Customizable' (schools can customize content), 'School-appropriate' (students can only watch approved videos), and 'Teachers' (use videos to enrich lessons).

Features

- Comprehensive
YouTube for Schools gives you access to the hundreds of thousands of educational videos on YouTube EDU. This includes short lessons from top teachers around the world, full courses from the world's best universities, professional development from fellow educators, and inspiring videos from thought leaders.
- Customizable
Schools can customize the content available in their school. All schools get access to all of the YouTube EDU content, but teachers and administrators can also log in to YouTube.com and create playlists of videos that will be available at your school.
- School-appropriate
School admins and teachers can log in and watch any video, but students cannot log in and can only watch YouTube EDU videos and videos their school has added. All comments and related videos are disabled and search is limited to YouTube EDU videos.
- Teachers
Use YouTube videos to enrich your classroom lessons; spark a conversation, make theory come to life, tap into the mind of the visual learner and more. YouTube.com/Teachers helps teachers learn to use YouTube as a powerful educational tool.
